Committed to helping people develop healthy relationships with themselves and others.

Womencare, founded by Laurie Kahn in 1978, is committed to encouraging and sustaining healthy relationships with self, others, family and community. We believe relationships that encourage mutuality, voice, and dignity are crucial to growth and healing. In service to this vision, Womencare provides individual, group, couple and family counseling, as well as sponsoring community and professional workshops.

Training, Consultation, Supervision

For more than 30 years, Womencare Counseling Center has been a leader in the field of PTSD, traumatic stress, grief and loss, relationships and sexuality, and child and adolescent concerns. We provide workshops, training, and consultation programs to resource and empower professionals, agencies, and schools. Please see our website under Professional Training & Resources / Programs at Your Location.

Womencare's experienced, licensed clinicians also provide individual or small-group consultation and licensure supervision to mental health professionals in many areas.

Care for the Therapist

In addition to providing opportunities for training, mentoring, and consultation, Womencare is committed to the care and nurturing of the therapist. It is a privilege to do this work, and with this privilege comes an unlimited opportunity for us as therapists to grow and be challenged. Self-awareness is essential to the craft of the therapist, and fosters our compassion and integrity.

To provide ongoing opportunities for support and personal growth, we offer for therapists:

- Therapy for therapists
- Individual and group consultation
- Counseling and consultation for survivor therapists
- Counseling for symptoms of compassion fatigue and burn-out
- Workshops focused on the intersection of the personal and the professional

We are sensitive to the complexities of working in this field and tending to oneself, and we honor confidentiality and privacy at the highest level.
