

Womencare Group Counseling Agreement

- Minimum of a ten-week commitment to group counseling is required.
- Fees are paid weekly unless other arrangements are previously made.
- Two weeks notice is required prior to terminating therapy.
- Twenty-four hour notice is required prior to cancellation or you will be charged the full fee for the appointment.
- Clients may miss up to three sessions a year without paying, providing twenty-four hour notice is given.
- Out of network fees are established on a sliding scale. Clients are responsible to re-negotiate their fee if their income becomes significantly higher or lower.
- In network fees are determined by insurance.
- Clients who are deemed addicted to drugs or alcohol may be asked to work toward or maintain sobriety as a stipulation of counseling.
- Group clients agree to maintain the confidentiality of other group members, and to not disclose their names or stories outside the group setting.

I consent to participate in psychotherapy at Womencare Counseling & Training Center.

Client

Signature

Date

Print Name

Parent/Guardian

Signature (required if client is under 18)

Date

Print Name